Bon Jovi guard gets £33k for buggy injuries

BY KIRSTEN RAWLINS
kirsten.rawlins@mk-news.co.uk

A WOMAN who was hit by a Bon Jovi roadie in a golf buggy has been awarded £33,000 compensation.

Sally Allen, 39, was a security guard helping to evacuate fans after gas canisters exploded during a gig at Milton Keynes Bowl in June 2006, when a member of the Bon Jovi entourage, Kevin McDonnell, was alleged to have run into her.

The mother-of-one suffered a broken leg, a crushed foot and a dislocated toe. Mrs Allen suffered a further setback six weeks later when doctors found a blood clot.

She also claimed to have another injury from the crash which ruined her sex life.

She claims she still struggles to walk long distances and suffered depression following the traumatic event, almost lost her home and her husband left.

Mrs Allen, from Yorkshire, originally put in a claim for £250,000 from Jon Bon Jovi and his band mates, but last week settled the case out of court, agreeing to a lesser sum of £33,000.

She has also not been able to work full-time since the accident, which happened at the 2006 Have a Nice Day tour.

Mr McDonnell, an American citizen, was not charged by police, as he allegedly left the country before she could report him.

A spokesman for the band has been reported to state that they were unaware of this incident, and that Mr McDonnell no longer works for them.

A writ filed at Oxford County Court said, at 4pm on Sunday, June 11 2006 a fire broke out in the VIP area and Mrs Allen helped cordon it off.

Mr McDonnell is alleged to have driven up to the cordon in a golf buggy at 4.50pm with the intention of getting backstage to see the band.

Mrs Allen stopped him, saying there was an emergency situation, and told him to take a detour.

He is said to have sworn repeatedly and told her: "I don't care about your emergency situation.

"I have got an emergency situation."

The writ claimed he went on to say: "Get out of my way.

"Do you know who I am? You can't stop me", before driving the buggy at her and over her right leg.

It stated Bon Jovi 'failed to exercise proper control over Kevin McDonnell and failed to ensure that he was trained so as to prevent him from inflicting violence'.

Accused back in jail after death of assault victim

BY KIRSTEN RAWLINS
kirsten.rawlins@mk-news.co.uk

A JAILBIRD has been sent back to prison for a second time after the man he assaulted died.

Michael Newson, 23, of Hudson Lane, Milton Keynes, was given three years behind bars for grievous bodily harm after an unprovoked attacked on Peter Collins in Lloyds Court, Milton Keynes, in July 2006.

However, 15 months after the assault, Mr Collins, 56 – who had been in a vegetative state since the assault – died, never having left hospital.

Prosecuting Benjamin Gumpert said: "The defendant, in his less than sober state, appears to have confused Collins with an adversary.

"He ran after him and punched him hard in the back of the head, causing him to fall and strike his head on the ground.

"The victim's skull was shattered and his brain severely damaged. He never recovered consciousness or left hospital."

Newson was released halfway through his sentence, on January 29 this year – three months after Mr Collins' death.

Previously defendants could only be recharged if the victim died within a year and a day of the attack.

Permission had to be granted by the Attorney General for Newson to face the new charge.

He has since been recalled to prison to serve the licence period of the previous sentence.

On Thursday, November 11, Newson pleaded guilty at Luton Crown Court to manslaughter and was given an 18-month jail sentence.

John Price, defending, said: "I have given the impact statements to the defendant and told him to take them away and read about the drawn-out agony.

"The effect on him pales into insignificance compared with the effect on the bereaved family."

Mr Collins' younger brother Leslie Collins, 52, said: "This was a deliberate, senseless attack on my brother.

"No sentence would be enough to make up for the damage he has done."

Barbara Humphreys, 60, Mr Collins' older sister said: "This protracted, living death must have been horrendous for Peter.

"If Peter had died immediately after Newson's assault we would have been extremely sad and angry, but we might have known that he was facing a sentence commensurate with his actions."

Judge Bevan said: "This was gratuitous violence of the kind which gives our city centres over to drunken yobbery.

"I have seen the CCTV images of you staggering up the street, urinating without any attempt to do it in private and walking straight up to your victim and punching him.

"It was a forceful blow. You then tried pathetically to claim self-defence."

A SEVENTEEN-YEAR-OLD boy from Bradwell Common has been charged with possession of an imitation firearm.

The charge relates to an incident on Saturday at around 5.20pm in Silbury Boulevard, near the Coventry Building Society at thecentre:mk.

An offender was seen with what appeared to be a handgun inside his waistband.

When approached by police officers the offender made off but was arrested shortly afterwards near to the V7 Saxon Street.

The 17-year-old boy was charged with possession of an imitation firearm, namely a BB gun, and possession of cannabis.

He was due to appear at Milton Keynes Magistrates' Court yesterday

A second 17-year-old boy was also arrested, but released without charge.

House burglary charge

A MAN has been charged in connection to a household burglary.

Michael Markou, 36, of Hume Close, Bradville, was charged with one count of burglary at a dwelling. He is due to appear at Huntingdon Crown Court at a later date.

Markou was arrested in connection with a burglary at a house in Newport Road, Hardmead, on Sunday, November 7. Items stolen included a laptop, hard drive and camera.

Village suffers thefts

A THEFT and a burglary took place overnight in Stoke Goldington.

The raid occurred between 5am and 6am at Mount Pleasant, where a trailer was stolen from a paddock.

The second incident was a burglary of a non-dwelling, which took place between 5.45am and 8am at Maltings Close where two petrol lawn mowers were stolen from an outbuilding.

The incidents took place in the early hours of November 10.

Arrests follow club affray

A WOMAN received facial cuts after an affray at a Leighton Buzzard nightclub.

There was a confrontation between a group of people in The Office Nightclub, in Lake Street, during which the woman was injured.

The group were asked to leave and Thames Valley Police were then called to a fight outside the club.

Two men in their 30s and a 20-year-old man were arrested for affray and released on police bail pending further inquiries.

The incident took place on November 6, just after 1am.

Jailed after guilty pleas

A NETHERFIELD man has been jailed for 16 months for handling stolen goods and assaulting a police officer.

Anthony Persaud, 26, from Broadlands, Netherfield, was sentenced at Huntingdon Crown Court, on November 9, after pleading guilty to three counts of handling stolen goods and one count of assault on a police officer.

The sentence is in relation to offences between April 1 and May 14, when Persaud conspired to dishonestly receive stolen goods, namely electrical goods, jewellery and motor vehicles.

League ready to take action if Christmas is lost

THE city has been warned it will get a 'costly' visit from the English Defence League (EDL) if the council changes the name of its Yule time celebrations.

In a letter to chief executive David Hill, protest group EDL promised a visit if the authority resorts to "politically correct appeasement" by changing the name of Christmas to 'winter festival.

It also points out the average cost of one of its demonstrations to a local authority is £500,000, an amount the letter said: "it is hoped will be avoided by your council."

Cllr Chris Williams, cabinet member for Culture and Leisure, said he thought the tone of the letter wasn't in keeping with the Christmas values it mentions.

He added: "We have received the letter, extolling the virtues of Christian values and particularly Christmas.

"Milton Keynes welcomes people from all religions and faiths, we enjoy our diversity and we celebrate many customs and practices.

"We have no intention of renaming Christmas or anything else and we hope people enjoy their Christmas holiday.

"I think that Christmas is a celebration. It is a time for hope and not one of intimidation and threat. While we appreciate the message of Christmas, it should be one that brings hope, not intimidation. We hope that people will celebrate Christmas for what it is."

A spokesman for the EDL said: "The EDL can confirm that they did send out a letter requesting that all councils keep the word Christmas.

"The response has been very favourable with the majority of responses, to date, confirming that they will keep the word Christmas in their celebrations."

56 jobs set to go at troubled Rok

BY ADAM GRINSELL
adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

ONE of the city's employers will be cutting half of its workforce after going into administration.

Building and maintenance firm Rok, which helped construct the new Coachway at Junction 14, will be shedding 56 of its 109 Milton Keynes-based employees.

The company - which has offices at Fox Milne and provides services to councils, schools and businesses across the city - was placed into administration on Monday, November 8, leaving its 3,800 UK-wide employees uncertain about their future.

On Wednesday, November 10, administrators Pricewaterhouse Cooper confirmed 711 redundancies would be made company-wide.

But then yesterday, the number being made redundant in the UK was increased to 1,800. So far it is believed this included 53 in the Milton Keynes building sector, two in administration and one from maintenance.

A Pricewaterhouse Cooper spokesman said: "We're disappointed that it's had to come to this and we understand the implications for the Milton Keynes marketplace.

"We're working closely with employees at this difficult time and their compensatory payments. They can be assured that they will be paid for the period they have been working since we took over.

"Wherever contracts are in place we're trying to continue those projects as far as we possibly can."

All other staff remaining at the company have been briefed, with the administrators working with them over the coming weeks as a buyer is sought. Milton Keynes Council confirmed that, although one project had recently been agreed with the company, none were currently underway that would be affected.

A council spokesman said: "We have worked with this company on a number of projects over the years, including the Coachway, which is now in the hands of the Homes and Communities Agency.

"We also signed an agreement with them to do some work on the new Westcroft Library, but we will obviously be reviewing this in the light of their current situation."

Employees affected by the cuts can call the administrators on 020 7212 1355 or employee.help@uk.pwc.com and all other employees, suppliers and customers of Rok can call 0844 257 0868.

MP backs plans to help get rid of flood problem

A CITY MP has welcomed long-awaited works to protect a village blighted by flooding.

Mark Lancaster met with parish councillors of Stoke Goldington to see the work taking place on flood defences. The new balancing ponds will store and help slow down the excess water discharge caused by heavy rainfall, which caused the village to be submerged in 2007 and in June and July this year.

The floods left people homeless and for three years villagers feared a repeat disaster every time heavy rainfall was forecast.

Working alongside Milton Keynes Council, the Environment Agency work is underway and should be finished by Christmas.

Stoke Goldington Parish Council chairman Roger Trett said: "At long last defence work is underway following intense lobbying from the parish council and Mark Lancaster. Residents are still concerned but they welcome the commencement of long promised works."

Mr Lancaster said: "This is a fantastic example of how, when a community comes together and perseveres, it can deliver the results it needs. And, as in this case, there is nothing more important than protecting their village, homes and families."

Council's windows U-turn leaves me with cold feeling

SIR - I was very interested to read your article on cold homes in this week's MKNEWS.

Ten years ago the council said it was going to replace the windows on our block and told us that we must not do it ourselves, even though the single glazed windows were rotting, letting in draughts and had been very poorly maintained.

I was at one of the meetings in the council offices where this promise was repeated and we were told that all areas in MK would be done before 2009 at the absolute latest and most blocks well before this date.

It is now late 2010, the windows have not been replaced, we've wasted large amounts of money in heating bills and been forced to pay for temporary repairs to the rotting windows. And now they say they are not going to replace them after all and we should do it ourselves instead.

It seems to me that it's actually the council officials that need replacing.

Cars' Tesco trips fears

SIR - I read your recent article on the proposed Tesco, in which Tony Fletcher of Tesco described alarmist traffic figures.

I decided to look at the traffic assessment Tesco produced and Tony alluded to. In the assessment it says the store will have 625 trips on a regular Friday peak, with the car park being at 84.28 per cent of occupancy. If the car park would operate at 100 per cent occupancy, this would be about 742 cars per hour.

If we multiply this by the annual store opening hours we get 3,384,685 trips per year. If the store operated at an average of only 60 per cent this would be 2,030,811 trips per year.

These do not include the lorries, staff cars or home delivery vehicles. My greatest concern of all is, if the store reaches the success levels of Kingston, the actual number of car journeys may be way above the two million mark and that truly is alarming.

Mr D Cooke
Newport Pagnell

En route to a rat run…?

SIR - In relation to the new Tesco store proposals, in my opinion, once the new traffic lights are in operation in Tickford Street, Severn Drive will become a rat run.

Bearing in mind that more than 300 children use Severn Drive to reach Tickford Park School, and older children use it to reach Ousedale School, the implications could be devastating.

Traffic already speeds along this road and parking makes this even more dangerous.

Gwyneth Turner
By email

Stop NHS wasting cash

SIR - I am writing regarding your article 'Hospital splashes out on temp boss' in MKNEWS on November 10.

How shocking. This hospital is already having to provide services with a lack of funding.

Could you imagine how many nurses and doctors you can employ for £215,000 a year.

This is absolutely terrible and the Government should be stopping any money that's wasted in the NHS.

Joan Morris
By email

Politicians are betraying us

SIR - It is outrageous on the part of the Liberal Democrat/Conservative Coalition Government to increase university students' fees from £3,000 to £9,000 a year.

The issue touches on the very foundations of our parliamentary democracy.

Nick Clegg's beliefs are irrelevant. The Lib Dem members were elected on the basis of their election manifesto which included abolition of university student fees. In changing the policy and enabling the formation of a Government which is opposed to most of the Lib Dem policies, the Lib Dems have subverted its own party and the whole electoral process.

What is the point of parties? What is the point of elections if the MPs behave like 'turncoats' in order to stay in power?

The truth of the matter is Nick Clegg and the other Lib Dem supporters of the Government have cheated and betrayed the electorate and in those circumstances students who supported the Lib Dems are right to demonstrate against the Government.

With 50,000 students taking part it was not surprising a small number of protesters became unruly to vent their anger and, unfortunately, they gave a bad name to a peaceful demonstration.

Cabbie's kindness praised

SIR - I Just want to whole-heartedly thank the kind Speedline cab driver who looked after my girlfriend's mobile phone at the weekend.

On Saturday he dropped us at MK rail station and my girlfriend left her phone in his car.

Fortunately, when we realised and I called in, the driver answered and said he would turn it off and keep it until we returned on Sunday. He also said he would keep it on his person rather, than take it to the company office, as this would have meant we would have to make a trip to Northampton to pick it up.

When we collected it from him on Sunday evening, we couldn't thank him enough, as we thought we had seen the last of it. So thank you again - if only everyone was so kind and thoughtful.

Peter James
Oldbrook

Donate your used stamps

SIR - I would like to say a big thank you to everyone who has sent used postage stamps to me in aid of the Guide Dogs for the Blind charity.

The stamps you donate enable the charity to raise much-needed funds to train the guide dogs.

I am always in need of all types of postage stamps, including foreign and Christmas, and would be grateful if you could pass this message on to your friends and contacts at home and abroad, so that I can continue to raise funds to support charity in forthcoming years.

If you are able help I would be grateful if you could. All you have to do is cut the stamps from their envelopes (leaving a 1cm margin around the stamp) and send them to PO Box 91, Virginia Water, Surrey, GU25 9AR

Estate buses are too fast

SIR- I feel compelled to write to let you know of the possible danger from the way that the bus drivers drive around my estate.

I think it's bad that, with some of the small roads that most of the new estates in Milton Keynes now have, buses have to drive around the whole estate to several bus stops. One bus stop in a safe place could be adequate and safer. Apart from that, most of the bus drivers drive round far too fast definitely above the safe speed to drive around a built-up area, not with any thought for any other road-users at all and blocking the road, expecting other drivers to reverse out of their way.

It's an accident waiting to happen and I am genuinely concerned.

Name and address supplied

Join Afghan war protest

SIR - Having paid our respects to our armed forces on Remembrance Sunday, it is now time to issue another call to the Tory/Lib Dem Government to bring our troops home from Afghanistan.

The war has been dragging on for nine years and little has been achieved. Thousands of Afghan civilians have been killed and 343 British soldiers have lost their lives. More than 60 per cent of the British public want our troops home soon. The Afghanistan war is costing us £5 billion a year. With the draconian cuts announced by the Government, this is money that could be better used in maintaining our NHS, education, police and transport services.

David Cameron tells us that British troops will stay in Afghanistan for another five years. Why?

This means that another £25 billion pounds will be squandered on this unwinnable war and hundreds more British soldiers and thousands more Afghan civilians will lose their lives.

Let's tell the Government that this lunacy must stop. On Saturday, members of the Milton Keynes Stop the War Group and supporters will be travelling to London to join a national demonstration calling for the withdrawal of British troops from Afghanistan. If you would like to attend as part of a larger group, please join us at CMK railway station at 10am.

Let's also write to our Milton Keynes MPs to demand that our troops be brought home as soon as possible.

Pair cannot keep dogs for ten years after 'starving' pets

BY ADAM GRINSELL
adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

A COUPLE have been banned from keeping dogs for ten years after allowing three bull terriers to become 'sickeningly thin'.

Kristoffer Cross, 28, and Nadia McKeon, 26, from Netherfield, Milton Keynes pleaded guilty to failing to meet the welfare needs of three pets at Milton Keynes Magistrates' Court on Friday.

The court was told the RSPCA went to the couple's home in April after they were called by the police, where the three Staffordshire Bull Terriers were all in a terrible state and severely underweight.

RSPCA inspector Stuart Wainwright said he was shocked by the condition of all three dogs, as they were very thin and described one in particular as 'emaciated and skeletal.

Mr Wainwright said: "The photographs clearly show how sickeningly thin these dogs were.

"There is just no excuse for allowing an animal to become this emaciated.

"Thankfully these animals have since been found loving homes."

A vet who examined the animals also said they were chronically emaciated. The terriers were signed over to the care of the RSPCA and have since been rehomed.

Both Cross and McKeon said they had been feeding the dogs regularly.

The couple were both fined £100 and ordered to pay £500 court costs each.

Pet owner is banned for life for mistreating dogs and cat

A WOMAN has been banned for keeping animals for life after being found guilty of mistreating two dogs and a cat.

Karen Custance, 47, from Serpentine Court, Bletchley, had been found guilty of causing unnecessary suffering to a dog and failing to provide an environment that was suitable for an animal to live in.

The court was told her former home in Rydal Way was covered in faeces and urine and that the dogs had been found in a bad state.

Inspectors who visited the property said the conditions inside the home were appalling.

Custance had said in an interview that she had suffered from a number of mental health problems and that she had asked for help, but never received it.

She was sentenced on Friday, November 5, at Milton Keynes Magistrates' Court, and was also given a 12-month community supervision order and ordered to pay £2,500 in court costs.

The court also made a deprivation order for her remaining two cats to be removed by the RSPCA.

Trucker dies days after being found 'slumped' in lorry

A LORRY driver found slumped over his steering wheel in Emerson Valley has died.

Roy Claringbold, 58, of Northampton, was discovered on Thursday, November 4, by a resident who first believed him to be asleep.

Thames Valley Police were called to the scene in Cropwell Bishop, Emerson Valley, at around 8am by the ambulance service.

The man was then air-lifted to John Radcliffe Hospital in Oxford with severe head injuries, where he died on Tuesday, November 9.

It is believed his injuries were sustained outside the Clocktower at about 7am.

Mr Claringbold had been collecting commercial waste from the area and was driving a refuse lorry.

Police believe there are no suspicious circumstances surrounding the incident and that it was an industrial accident.

The investigation is now being handed over to the Health and Safety Executive.

Outside the Crystal Forest

Christmas is coming and the geese are getting fat…

WITH just 37 sleeps to go things in thecentre:mk are beginning to look a lot like Christmas.

Middleton Hall is being transformed into a winter wonderland and sponsors MK NEWS took a peek at how this year's display – The Storyland Adventure – is shaping up.

Behind the curtains Santa's grotto is ready and waiting for the big man in red to arrive (right).

The Wishing Pool is ready to collect donations for this year's nominated charities – RSPCA and Brain Injuries Rehabilitation Trust.

Children will have a chance to take a trip through The Christmas Storyland Adventure, where they can go to the Crystal Forest to meet the wish fairy, walk through the hollowed out Wishing Pool and see the magical stars in the Enchanted Wish Tree setting. A double decker carousel, Wish-list Lane Christmas Market, with seasonal food and gifts, and a variety of Christmas scenes are all being prepared.

Waiting for Santa

The Christmas Storyland Adventure opens at 9am on Friday and at 4.30pm Santa arrives with his festive procession, as they make their way down to open Santa's Grotto.

Place your bets on casino's go-ahead

BY ADAM GRINSELL
adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

A LEISURE centre has been given a boost in its fight to home the long-awaited mega casino planned for the city.

Leisure Plaza, near Milton Keynes Central railway station, is one of three companies currently battling it out to house the new betting complex.

Now the site – which hosts MK Lightning hockey team – has been granted planning permission to refurbish its ice rink and build 8,753 square metres of retail space with a 665-space car park, as well as the 3,798 square metre casino.

Dozens of MK Lightning supporters turned out at a recent Milton Keynes Council planning meeting, applauding the decision when it was made.

MK Lightning general manager Vito Rausa is not worried that a failed bid to home the casino would affect the ice rink refurb.

He said: "If the casino doesn't go ahead then there are retail options there, but it is the right location for the casino.

"We're still hopeful that they are going to start next April.

"Everybody involved with MK Lightning is delighted. It'll be a shiny new facility that helps to endorse ice hockey in Milton Keynes.

"It was the first and perhaps most successful team sport in Milton Keynes, and this will help with the attraction of new sponsors for the club and raise the whole profile of hockey in the city.

"It reflects the whole success of the sport, attracts new fans and endorses the support the council has for it."

Milton Keynes Council will be granting the casino licence within the next 12 months to the development it thinks will benefit the city the most.

The Leisure Plaza faces stiff competition from MK Dons chairman Pete Winkelman's company Inter MK, for a site near the Denbigh stadium, and Xscape for a site near their snow dome entertainment complex.

Developers Abbeygate Helical were not available for comment as this paper went to press.

Court order bans drinker from pub after conviction for throwing glass

A MAN has been banned from entering a pub for six months after throwing a glass.

Paul Begg, 46, from Tinkers Bridge, was given an exclusion order banning him from the Netherfield Tavern, in Netherfield after he was convicted of criminal damage at Milton Keynes Magistrates' Court.

At about 3.45pm on September 1, Begg went into the watering hole and was refused service.

He then threw a pint glass at a display of bottles behind the bar, smashing the glass.

He was also ordered to pay a £50 fine.

Inspector Colleen Lavery, from Thames Valley Police, said: "The new licensee in the Netherfield Tavern is working hard with both police and partners to take a zero-tolerance approach to anyone causing trouble in the pub.

"We hope this will send out a strong message to anyone in Milton Keynes that if you misbehave on licensed premises we will take action against you."

Pre-Xmas bus fare rise not the ticket

BY KIRSTEN RAWLINS
kirsten.rawlins@mk-news.co.uk

UNHAPPY: Bus Users' chairman Peter Ballantyne wants to meet with Arriva to question its fare increase

BUS users have hit out after it was announced fares will be upped just before Christmas.

Bus company Arriva claims the increase in the price of bus tickets – which will hit the whole of Milton Keynes from November 28 – is due to the rise in maintenance costs.

Chairman for Milton Keynes Bus Users' Group, Peter Ballantyne, said: "The Milton Keynes Bus Users' Group will seek a meeting with Arriva to discuss why it is increasing bus fares at this time, when it continues to fail to meet a standard of service that should be expected by its passengers."

Cllr Vanessa McPake, cabinet member for transport at Milton Keynes Council, said: "I'm very disappointed at this bus fare rise just before Christmas and I would like to know what investment Arriva are putting into for the bus services used by the people of Milton Keynes.

"Are they just doing this to take advantage of Christmas shoppers coming in by bus?

"It is not good timing at all for our new park and ride scheme, due to be opened just one day before the fare rise.

"We have been telling people the park and ride will mean they can leave their cars by the Coachway when they come off the motorway and use the bus service. I think people would understand if the buses ran on time, but so many don't."

An adult single ride will go up by 10p, with price depending on how far you travel, and child fares will stay at 50 per cent of the adult price.

A day ticket will be boosted from £3.30 to £3.50, the Milton Keynes weekly ticket will be £12 and the All Zone weekly ticket will change to £30. An Arriva spokesman said: "We fully appreciate that any increase to travel costs is hard, especially at the moment, but customers can be assured that we have done what we can to keep fare increases to a minimum.

"However, the small increase is necessary to ensure we are covering the costs of providing bus services in Milton Keynes."

Westminster to look at cabbie licensing confusion after MK MPs get involved

TAXI and private hire car licensing for Milton Keynes firms will be investigated in Parliament.

Operators, drivers and representatives have complained to the city's two MPs about the loss of business from cross-border activity by neighbouring boroughs.

MPs Iain Stewart and Mark Lancaster have welcomed an announcement that the matter will now be investigated by the Transport Select Committee in the House of Commons.

Mr Stewart, a member of the Committee, said: "It is important to look carefully at this issue to ensure that there is a level-playing field for operators in Milton Keynes and that passenger safety comes first.

"I am looking forward to reviewing all the evidence and quizzing witnesses early in the New Year."

His Milton Keynes North counterpart Mr Lancaster said: "After months of campaigning to address this complex issue I am pleased it is finally being scrutinised by the select committee.

"Though there are no simple solutions, I look forward to their recommendations.

"I hope this will help us move towards the resolution of an issue that has warranted scores of complaints in Milton Keynes."

The committee is interested, in particular, in cross-border hire problems caused by private hire vehicles picking up passengers on a large scale outside of the area in which they are licensed.

Short written submissions can be sent by Monday, December 20, to transev@parliament.uk

Tesco jobs fear as Stobart takes over

BY KIRSTEN RAWLINS
kirsten.rawlins@mk-news.co.uk

TESCO workers have hit out over fears they will lose their jobs now the store's transport department is to be sold off.

The Fenny Lock depot, in Milton Keynes, and its 151 workers will be handed over by the company to new owners Eddie Stobart just before Christmas.

One worker said: "They've given us 30 days notice that our jobs are going to be transferred to Eddie Stobart.

"I don't see why they have to do it. Now we've all got to cash our shares in and our pensions will be frozen.

"I know I'll be looking for another job – we're all being forced to work for a company which we don't want to work for.

"The main fear is the fact that Eddie Stobart is building another depot elsewhere which will be ready in May. We'll probably be made redundant when that's finished.

"Some of us have worked there for years and years, and this is how they treat us."

Tesco claims that as part of the consultation process the employees have been offered compensation due to the end of their company benefits and that they have the choice whether to freeze or transfer their pensions.

Tesco distribution depot at Fenny Lock

The department change-over will take place on December 10, and workers union USDAW is in discussion with the company about the plans.

Joanne McGuinness, USDAW National Officer, said: "USDAW has just started talks with Tesco about the proposal and we will be examining its business case for the move in detail. Our local official was on site when the announcement was made to staff and USDAW will be doing everything it can to support and represent our members throughout the consultation process."

A Tesco spokesman said: "At Tesco we constantly review our distribution network to ensure it is providing the best service to our stores and customers.

"As part of our latest review we are consulting with staff and their union representatives on the transfer of transport operations to Stobarts at Fenny Lock."

Foodies vote pub the best again

DELIGHTED: Owner Emma Gilchrist and head chef Jennie Bowmaker receive the award

A PUB has been handed a mouth-watering accolade after being named Buckinghamshire's Restaurant of the Year.

The Crooked Billet in Newton Longville scooped the readers' vote in the Foodie Guide for the top spot for the fifth time in ten years.

It has been dubbed a "contemporary award-winning restaurant in a traditional country pub" by the guide, which features reader-recommended restaurants in Buckinghamshire, Bedfordshire, Hertfordshire and Northamptonshire.

Emma Gilchrist, chef and owner, said: "The local awards are always the best ones.

"It is testament to the entire staff that we have now received this award on five occasions.

"Our little restaurant would not be here if the village and local community did not support us and for that I thank everyone."

INSPECTING THE PAST: Visitors examining exhibits during the fourth archaeology day at Central Milton Keynes Library

Red Bull team's superb

RED Bull Racing became double World Champions when Sebastian Vettel lifted the F1 title on Sunday at the Abu Dhabi Grand Prix. The Tilbrook-based team now have the Drivers' and Constructors' Championships to their name. Sports reporter SIMONE CORGAN went to the factory to meet the Red Bull team who made it all possible, and gathered the thoughts of key people in Milton Keynes

ONLY one man can be crowned champion of the Formula One world – and this year that honour goes to Sebastian Vettel.

But the German driver is the first to admit it would not have been possible without the help of a 600-strong team based on an industrial estate in Milton Keynes.

Just 48 hours after becoming the youngest World Champion in history – aged 23 – Vettel, with little sleep but a broad smile firmly fixed on his face, said: "I'm very proud it's a team achievement.

"There's one guy driving the car but there's so many people behind the two cars and behind the race team at the track – there's hundreds of people working every day and even night to make the cars quicker and this year they have been very special cars."

For a city that is so often mocked for its grid system and roundabouts, MK and its Red Bull team, will forever be associated with motor-sport's greats – the likes of Ferrari, McLaren, Lotus and Williams.

When Red Bull collected the Constructors' Championship last week team principal Christian Horner said in six years – since the drinks company bought out Jaguar Racing – they had gone from a 'party team to champions'.

To document such an extraordinary achievement MK Council has confirmed it is hoping to organise an event to celebrate.

A spokesman for MK Council said: "We are in discussions with Red Bull to see how we can mark this historic occasion, but nothing has been agreed yet."

Horner, realising the impact of the team's achievements, joked to MK NEWS: "I think there should be a Bank Holiday in honour of our success just in Milton Keynes!"

Millions of television viewers would have heard Horner singing the praises of the factory worker on Sunday afternoon, and his praise continued yesterday when the team members returned to their base.

He said: "The team is everything. I'm hugely proud of what this team has managed to achieve, not just in the last 12 months but the last six years – we've come an awfully long way.

"What you don't see on a Sunday afternoon is the commitment, the dedication, the family sacrifices that have been made to produce such competitive cars and that's all down to the guys who are here."

Workers at Red Bull Racing, who had both Vettel and Mark Webber in contention for the title, were given free 'Constructors' Champions' t-shirts last week and will looking for another to show off Vettel's success too.

The brains behind the car that made it all possible – the RBR6 – is Adrian Newey, a softly spoken, shy man who does his best to hide from the spotlight.

And in typical fashion Newey deflected the praise away from his creation back on to the team.

He said: "The past 48 hours have been exhilaration and exhausting.

"This car is certainly one we should all be proud of and it's certainly true to say, in my experience, if people start pointing the finger and accusing you of cheating in all sorts of difficult ways, it's usually a sign of flattery.

"In that sense we should all be flattered."

WHAT THEY SAID

A number of key figures in Milton Keynes offered their congratulations to the Red Bull Racing team.

Rita Spada, CEO, Milton Keynes and North Buckinghamshire Chamber of Commerce said: "Our local Red Bull story of ultimate success has been a long journey of persistence and endurance that originated from Sir Jackie Stewart through to Jaguar Racing and then passed to Red Bull Racing.

"The secret of this success is embedded in this region's incredible independent supply chain of auto sport engineering and technology.

"It is a classic story of the power of a vision, sheer hard work, technology and teamwork producing excellence.

"We are immensely proud of our local team and the success this has brought them and we congratulate everyone at the Milton Keynes Red Bull headquarters."

Tim Roxburgh, director of Milton Keynes Partnership, said: "Congratulations to all of the team at Red Bull Racing on a fantastic achievement. It is great to see Milton Keynes profiled on the world stage and it is something the whole city can be proud of."

Mark Lancaster, MP for Milton Keynes North, said: "It is fantastic that Milton Keynes-based Red Bull Racing has managed to do the double.

"My particular congratulations go to the people who work at the Tilbrook base and helped to make these victories happen."

Iain Stewart, MP for Milton Keynes South, said: "Red Bull really is putting Milton Keynes on the world map. I am extremely pleased with their double achievement – first the Constructors' Championship and now the F1 World Championship.

"I pay tribute to Red Bull, especially the staff at Tilbrook who have done so much behind the scenes to make these achievements a reality."

Leader of Milton Keynes Council Cec Tallack said: "Everyone at the Council is delighted that Red Bull won both championships.

"The effort of all concerned is superb. They are a cause for the city to celebrate.

"Red Bull is a major asset for Milton Keynes and the most public face of the success of the city in high performance technology.

"We are also trying to make Milton Keynes a major magnet for all sports and this is a great showcase along with others such as the very positive role MK people have played in the city's part of the England World Cup bid."

MK Dons chairman Pete Winkelman said: "Red Bull Racing's success this season serves to strengthen Milton Keynes' growing reputation as an international sporting city.

"Everyone in the city is so immensely proud of everything they've achieved with dedication, talent and ambition. Congratulations to Christian Horner, Sebastian Vettel and all the team at Tilbrook on a quite remarkable achievement."

Wasting medicine costs local NHS £1.5m a year

BY KIRSTEN RAWLINS
kirsten.rawlins@mk-news.co.uk

CASH-STRAPPED Milton Keynes NHS could save more than £1.5million each year if patients stopped throwing medicine away, a health chief has revealed.

Janet Corbett, NHS Milton Keynes' chief pharmacist, has made a desperate plea to patients to use their medicine disposal scheme in a bid to save the much-needed cash.

Mrs Corbett said: "Wasted medicines cost the local NHS £1.5 million a year.

"People can help save their NHS money by telling their doctor about medicines they no longer need or want to take.

"We hope our red bag disposal scheme raises awareness about wasted medicines. We encourage local people to collect a red bag from their local pharmacy and return it with their unwanted medicines to make sure they are disposed of safely."

To give back unused medicines, patients can take the bag home, fill it and return it to the pharmacy.

Old prescription medicine or over-the-counter remedies that have gone out-of-date, are also wanted.

MK NHS also wants to remind people that they should not take medication left over from previous prescriptions or take another person's prescribed medicine – even if the symptoms appear similar.

Man died after going to check on crayfish

BY KIRSTEN RAWLINS
kirsten.rawlins@mk-news.co.uk

A PENSIONER drowned in a river while catching crayfish, an inquest heard.

Colin Stephenson, 63, of Silver Street, Newport Pagnell, was found by Kenneth Drage as he took a stroll along the Great River Ouse, in Newport Pagnell, in September.

Mr Drage, from Northamptonshire, said: "I was torn between whether it was a body or a mannequin. His waist was bare and gave the impression of plastic, rather than that of a body.

"I gathered a few stones and threw them in to clear the weed of what I then realised was a body, face down in the water."

Mr Stephenson, who was retired, lived with his mother until her death four years ago, after which he lived alone.

He suffered high blood pressure and cholesterol, prostate problems and cellulites in his legs.

But none of these would have immediately been fatal, his GP Dr Fatima Mohri told the court.

It is believed Mr Stephenson, who was twice over the drink driving limit when he was found, fell into the water when checking his crayfish pots - later found to be full.

The inquest was told that the shock of falling into the water was made worse by Mr Stephenson's alcohol intake.

The pensioner's brother Brian Stephenson said: "I was gobsmacked when I found out. I used to visit him once a month, or so.

"When we came to sort everything out, we discovered Colin had destroyed everything - the birth certificates, the death certificates. Everything.

"He'd even signed something at the hospital to say he had no next of kin, so everyone was surprised when we turned up."

Coroner Rodney Corner ruled a verdict of accidental death by drowning and said: "He was a bachelor who had lived in Newport Pagnell for 63 years.

"He had worked as a coach trimmer, and took up other jobs, but nothing proved satisfactory. He took up fishing in the last few years of his life. I'm very sorry to hear about what has happened."

Dad took his life after fearing being sent back to jail

A FATHER-OF-THREE hanged himself in a children's play area over fears he would be sent back to prison.

Kevin Ray, 41, of Granby Court, Bletchley, was found at the park in Millfield, Stony Stratford, by two early-morning dog walkers in July.

An inquest heard the slaughterman was due to appear at Peterborough Crown Court on August 8 on charges of aggravated theft of a car and driving without a licence. He was also serving a suspended sentence of 24 weeks.

Jeanette Ray said her brother had told her he would never return to prison.

She said: "I think it was the thought of going back to prison. He had been in and out of prison. He had lost his licence through drink-driving.

"He had trouble with alcohol, and Kevin could become violent when he got drunk. Kevin and alcohol didn't mix. He was a kind of Jekyll and Hyde character. When he didn't drink he was such a nice person - he'd have done anything for anyone."

Coroner Rodney Corner said: "Kevin's is a difficult case, because the evidence is so sparse.

"The cause of death is 1A suspension, and I am quite satisfied that he meant to take his life.

"I suspect that he feared that he might be found guilty, and wasn't prepared to go back inside.

"My verdict is that he killed himself."

THIS man has been jailed for seven years for an armed robbery in a betting shop.

Distraction burglar is sent packing by OAPs

BY KIRSTEN RAWLINS
Kirsten.rawlins@mk-news.co.uk

A BURGLAR left empty-handed after two elderly women slammed the door in his face within five minutes.

The pensioners – both in their 80s – refused to let the man in when he preyed on their homes in Leighton Buzzard last week.

The criminal first called at the Nelson Road home of an 80-year-old lady just after 3.35pm on Wednesday, November 10, claiming he wanted to check the stop-cock in her property.

She challenged him and asked for identification, which he did not have. When he tried to push his way in, she slammed the front door shut.

Just minutes later, police believe the same man called at a property in Garden Hedge and told the 83-year-old home-owner he wanted to check the gas and water due to works being carried out down the road.

Again, she asked for identification and when the fake gas man tried to force his way in, she shut the door on him.

The offender is described as white, about 30, 5ft 5inches tall, with a medium build, a thin face and black hair. He wore a dark fleece and trousers and spoke with an Irish accent.

Anyone with information can contact DC Sarah Livingstone, in confidence, on 01582 473195, text 07786 200011, or call Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111.

Oh brother! Ali and Frazer lead cup bid

BY SIMONE CORGAN
simone.corgan@mk-news.co.uk

IN ACTION: Alastair and Frazer McColl

TWO sport-loving brothers are looking to create history as they play together in 'hockey's FA Cup' for the first time.

The Milton Keynes club entered the prestigious England Hockey National Cup for the first time this season - and have two siblings leading their challenge.

Alastair and Frazer McColl, of Milton Keynes, have joined forces as part of a resurgent club, which is set on climbing up the leagues after back-to-back promotions.

The brothers will be taking part in the national event, which is dubbed the sport's FA Cup as it allows lower division teams to compete against the sides that make up the top flight.

The McColl boys have been in the MK ranks for more than ten years - playing their part in helping the side become Middlesex, Berkshire, Buckinghamshire, Oxfordshire Counties League champions.

Twenty-six-year-old Alastair, from Middleton, has been playing hockey for 16 years and was joined in the first team by Frazer, 21, three years ago.

Alastair said: "There was a bit of friendly rivalry to begin with because he plays in midfield and I'm upfront as a forward, but we're both similar characters on and off the pitch, so we have a lot more banter these days.

"Sometimes things get a bit heated on the pitch, but I'm of the opinion that he's big enough to look after himself, so I leave him to it."

Frazer, from Brownswood, admitted the brotherly bond can be an advantage on the pitch.

He said: "It's quite nice to play alongside Ali because he plays upfront, so it means we link up quite a lot on the field and we know each other's game quite well.

"Ali can get quite fired up on the pitch, he's a bit like Wayne Rooney. It's usually best to leave him to it, although I would always jump in if needed.

"By getting to this stage we've already sent out a message to the rest of the country that Milton Keynes has a strong hockey club and we're looking to upset the odds on Sunday."

Sunday's game, against Old Loughtonians, is being played at Woughton on the Green with a 12.30pm kick-off.

The winners will progress into the quarter finals.

to honour heroes

AS men, women and children across the country remembered our fallen heroes last week, Picture Editor Andy Handley visited some of the parades to see how Milton Keynes were honouring soldiers, past and present.

THE city came to a standstill on Thursday as shops, offices and factories paid their respect to those lives lost in armed conflict.

At 11am shoppers in thecentre:mk stood for the two minute silence as the public address system announced the time and date that the guns ceased to fire at the end of the first world war in 1918.

On Sunday across the city wreaths were placed on war memorials, the Last Post sounded and silence fell before the Reveille played.

People recited the famous words of the Kohima Epitaph - when you go home, tell them of us all and say, for your tomorrow, we gave our today.

At Bletchley the traditional parade marched from Bletchley Park to the memorial where Mayor Debbie Brock laid a wreath along with MK South MP Iain Stewart.

MK North MP Mark Lancaster attended the large parade in Newport Pagnell.

At war memorials in all the towns and villages, larger than usual crowds turned out to honour those who have lost their lives in two World Wars and all other conflicts since, including those still fighting in Afghanistan and the words "We Will Remember Them" were spoken.

Members of the Milton Keynes Branch of the Parachute Regiments Association along with representative from the naval service during the parade at Bletchley War Memorial

Mayor Debbie Brock and MP Iain Stewart move forward to lay wreaths at the War Memorial in Bletchley

100-ft tree will let daredevils jump at freefall opportunity

BY ADAM GRINSELL
adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

MEET Goliath – the highest simulated freefall jump in Britain.

Delivered on Sunday, the 100-ft tall tree trunk now stands erect at Aerial Extreme, next to Willen Lake.

The height of seven double decker buses stacked on top of each other, climbers will have a stunning 360-degree view of Milton Keynes, before they leap off the edge and hurtle towards the ground before gently touching down.

Sinan Osman, managing director of Aerial Extreme, said: "It's very rare to be able to source a tree of this size for extreme activities within the UK.

"Combine this with a high-tech piece of equipment allowing you to freefall and you have a unique adventure experience.

"We have been working on the design for almost two years.

"Goliath epitomises our mission statement, which is to take extreme adventure to the masses and fun to a higher level."

The delivery of the equipment involved careful planning, a 48-hour journey and the closure of the H6 Childs Way for most of Sunday morning.

Ria Bugg, site manager, added: "We wanted to push the boundaries of outdoor adventure in urban areas and Goliath is definitely the next step. It has taken a few years for it to arrive, but it is well worth the wait."

Those who dare can experience Goliath from spring next year.

New MK Theatre manager looks to build on success

WITH more than 15 years experience behind him, Andrew Lister has taken up the reins as general manager at Milton Keynes Theatre.

Mr Lister, who joined the theatre a short while ago, started his career with the front of house team at the Festival Theatre in Paignton.

And he liked it so much that he continued working at the prestigious venue during his summer breaks while studying for a degree in economics and politics at the University of Warwick.

However, during term time he would often be found helping out backstage at the nearby Warwick Arts Centre and by the end of his three-year degree Mr Lister knew where his future career would lie.

After joining the management training scheme of Apollo Leisure, he spent 15 years managing theatres up and down the country.

Mr Lister (right) said: "Milton Keynes Theatre has built an enviable reputation, not only locally but nationally. I am therefore delighted to have the chance to join the team here and help build on that success over the coming years."

Mr Lister has previously managed the Palace Theatre Manchester, Empire Theatre Sunderland, Wyvern Theatre Swindon, Hippodrome Theatre Bristol and Alexandra Theatre Birmingham.

While at Bristol he hosted the World Premiere of the Cameron Macintosh and Disney Theatrical production of Mary Poppins, which he considers one of his career highlights.

A CITY MP praised an new food delivery service which 'ticked all the boxes'.

Mark Lancaster, MP for Milton Keynes North, officially opened the Newport Pagnell Food Box scheme.

At the start of this month, the Tyringham-based firm began filling boxes with produce from their Market Hill greengrocers and GJ Douglas Butchers, to be delivered directly to people's doors.

Mr Lancaster said: "For me, an initiative like this really does tick all the boxes.

"With such hectic lives, people find it harder to shop in their local high street, and end up stopping off at a supermarket after work. But this is a way of fitting in with their busy 21st century lifestyles.

"It is a great way of keeping our fantastic high streets alive and compete with the big chains.

"I also like the emphasis on the fruit and veg, which will help people lead healthier lifestyles and get their five-a-day.

"And by taking the items to people's homes, Neil and Carole are helping limit those extra car emissions of people driving to the shops."

The Coalition Government has pledged its commitment to helping small businesses and Mr Lancaster recently pressed for more information in Parliament.

After a meeting with Newport Pagnell Partnership, he is seeking more details about how the services provided by high street stores can be protected.

Cannons fired in anniversary tradition

THE ancient firing of The Fenny Poppers took place once more in Fenny Stratford.

The six miniature cannons are fired in the town every November 11 to mark the anniversary of the death of local benefactor Browne Willis - who built St Martin's Church in Aylesbury Street in honour of his father.

He also made provision for the firing of the poppers, a tradition that requires the church to hold a gun-powder licence, making it the only church in England to do so.

It is believed that the annual firing has been taking place for almost 300 years although no record has been kept as to when they were first fired.

Custodian of the Cannon Peter White packed and primed the poppers last Thursday, a job he has been doing for more than 35 years.

Tradition dictates that the cannons were fired three times during the day at noon, 2pm and 4pm - with the first of the day to be lit by the vicar of St Martin's Father Victor Bullock.

Xmas Express steams into MK - it's snow joke

CHILDREN can get into the festive spirit on real snow this weekend.

The Log Cabin includes interactive fun and games with the talking Moose – voice courtesy of Peter Dickinson, the vocals behind X Factor and E4 – free art and craft workshops with the National Elf Service and festive story telling.

The Christmas Extravaganza will begin on Saturday from noon to 6pm and carries on throughout the festive season.

ON THE RUN: Participants in last year's event

Come on all you Jogging Santas

BY ANDY HANDLEY
andy.handley@mk-news.co.uk

COMB out your white beards, iron your red suits and pop on your running shoes because Santa's coming to town.

The British Heart Foundation (BHF) is calling on the people of Milton Keynes to get into the festive spirit by taking part in this year's Milton Keynes Santa Jog.

The charity run takes place on Sunday, December 5, around Willen Lake.

For the fourth year hundreds of festive joggers – all over the age of 14 – are expected to don their trainers and free Santa suits to take part in the fundraising jog.

Budding Santas can walk, jog or run 4km around the lake.

A spokesman for the event said: "The Milton Keynes Santa Jog is the perfect distraction on the lead up to Christmas not only to get fit and have fun but get away from the Christmas rush and winter blues. This is a great event for all the family, all ages are welcome, so why not team up with friends, colleagues and family and start the celebrations early.

"If you think the under 14s are missing out on the Santa suits don't despair, there is a festive fancy dress competition with a prize for the best costume.

"Sponsorship money could really help the BHF save more lives this Christmas and to encourage everyone to raise as much as they can there is also Nintendo WII up for grabs."

To be in with a chance of winning the WII, participants need to raise £50 sponsorship and they will automatically be entered into a free prize draw.

To join the red sea of Santas around Willen Lake this December contact the events team on 0808 100 2109 or email mailto: east-events@bhf.org.uk, east-events@bhf.org.uk or enter online at bhf.org.uk/miltonkeynessantajog

MK businesses forge links with Chinese delegates

AS David Cameron was holding high-level trade talks with China last week, Milton Keynes Chamber of Commerce was doing the same.

Officials from Jiangxi Province's Industry and Information Technology Committee were officially welcomed by chamber chief executive Rita Spada to discuss international link-ups and trading opportunities.

The delegation discussed the development and recent growth of the Milton Keynes region, exchanged ideas about future development, expansion into international trade and possible investment.

Mrs Spada said: "As part of Milton Keynes' status as a world trade centre, these visits are invaluable in raising awareness of trade opportunities, establishing meaningful connections that build relationships and develop a mutual understanding of how collectively we can harness and stimulate the current and potential new markets for our local firms in the future.

"The Prime Minister's recent trade visit to China demonstrates how vital it is that we establish these types of connections, so that we in Milton Keynes and north Bucks secure our fair share of the global marketplace opportunities."

Anyone interested in international trading opportunities can call the Chamber of Commerce on 01908 259000 or visit www.mk-chamber.co.uk

Free pizzas on offer to help celebrate parlour's expansion

TOPPING lovers can get their hands on a slice of the action at Papa John's Pizzas on Friday.

The Newport Pagnell outlet – which has created 15 jobs following a £250,000 cash boost – opened on the High Street earlier this month and wants to give people the chance to taste their fresh dough.

Franchise owner Siddique Bokhari said: "I'm looking forward to giving away 100 pizzas to the people of Newport Pagnell to celebrate the opening of our new store.

"Papa John's is famous for its 'Better Ingredients, Better Pizza' philosophy and our 100 per cent fresh dough pizzas are already proving popular with people in the area."

The offer starts at midday and for more details visit www.papajohns.co.uk or call the store on 01908 210 333.

Young soccer players can learn from Dons' professional coaches

YOUNG sport-lovers are being offered the chance to take part in daily football coaching sessions courtesy of professional coaches from MK Dons.

The multi-use games area at Great Linford Parish Council's Downs Barn sports ground will host a programme of activities to engage youngsters and help tackle issues, such as crime and anti-social behaviour.

The project is being run by MK Dons Sport and Education Trust (SET) in conjunction with Milton Keynes Council and Great Linford Parish Council.

It is being funded through a £32,000 grant provided by Barclays Spaces for Sports, a partnership between Barclays and the Football Foundation which has created 200 sports sites across the UK.

The Downs Barn site comprises a multi games use area which provides a safe environment for youngsters to play sport, improve their confidence and develop positive attitudes towards other members of the community.

To ensure the project at Downs Barn meets its objectives, MK Dons Sport and Education Trust has set up a steering group with Milton Keynes Council and Great Linford Parish Council.

Daily activities take place from 5pm to 6pm during the school term. For more information call Mike Lister on 01908 315647.

Elderly people warned to be on their guard against 'police' conman

PENSIONERS as old as 90 across the city are being targeted by burglars claiming to be police officers.

There has been a recent spate of distraction burglaries in Milton Keynes, with six offences taking place in the last ten days.

In five of these the offender has claimed to be a police officer to try to gain entry to the property of an elderly resident. DI Nick Glister said: "It's clear that the offender is deliberately targeting elderly and vulnerable people.

"Although he claims to be a police officer, he is dressed in plain clothes and not wearing any kind of police uniform.

"We believe the same person is committing these offences and I would urge anyone with information about these offences to contact us as soon as possible. The people who commit distraction burglaries are the lowest of the low and this person needs to be caught."

The offender is white, in his mid twenties to early thirties, about 5ft 6ins to 5ft 8ins, with brown hair.

Anyone with any information should call 0845 8 505 505, or Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111.

PC awarded lifetime achievement honour

BY KIRSTEN RAWLINS
kirsten.rawlins@mk-news.co.uk

A POLICEMAN who has dedicated 27 years to the force was nominated for a national award.

PC Gary Kellet, of Newport Pagnell, had already won the Thames Valley Lifetime Achievement award.

PC Kellet, a policeman for Bradwell for 10 years, was one of 52 officers invited down to London earlier this month after being short-listed for the national Lifetime Achievement Award.

He said: "It was something I never expected. I was nominated by someone from the force, but it was down to letters sent in by the public.

"I'm retiring next year - it's always in the last year you can get nominated for these awards."

The awards, at the London Hilton, were presented by Home Secretary Theresa May.

PC Kellet added: "She stayed right up till the end, and it was midnight by the time the last awards were given out."

Raoul Moat victim David Rathband and BBC News at Ten anchorman Huw Edwards also appeared at the ceremony to give speeches.

PC Kellet said: "It was a really good night. I was proud for Thames Valley. I never thought I would be nominated for something like that."

PC Kellet, who has been a school councillor at Summerfield School, New Bradwell, for four years, was a national runner-up.

He added: "I'm busy, but it's a nice busy. They're very nice people.

"The award was such an honour.

"I do what I do. Doing your job and getting paid for it should be enough, but that was fantastic."

RECOGNITION: PC Gary Kellet

Whats Next?

Once you reach the end of Year 11, you're into a whole new ball game. Yes, you are going to be faced with another set of choices. And no, it's not just a matter of staying at school or going out to work!

If you want to stay on in full-time education there are lots of courses to choose from. But you'll need to decide which subjects you want to focus on and find out where you can study them.

You may be able to study at your own school's sixth form, the sixth form of another school, or at a sixth form college. They offer a wider range of options than you've probably had before and the environment is usually more relaxed than in Year 11.

Sixth forms vary a lot in size and in the courses and facilities they offer. Sixth form colleges tend to be larger and more informal than school sixth forms.

Further education colleges also vary a lot in size and in the subjects and facilities they offer. Your fellow students may include adults of all ages as well as young people.

*Some further education colleges specialise in particular subject areas and some also support students with a particular disability or learning need.

You can apply to more than one sixth form or college. Many colleges let you apply online, or you can contact them for an application form. You should start applying for popular or specialist courses in the autumn term of Year 12.
For other courses, you normally apply in the spring.
Some schools and most FE colleges publish their prospectus which is a free booklet that describes the facilities and the courses they offer. Many prospectuses are now available online.

The best way to find out what a school or college is really like is to go to an open day or an open evening. You will get to see the facilities, meet the staff and some of the students.

Whatever and wherever you study, you could qualify for help with essential costs through the Education Maintenance Allowance. It's worth up to £30 a week, and it's paid straight into your bank account, not to your parents or your college. For more details go to www.direct.gov.uk and follow the links to EMA.

Hazeley School Sixth Form

At The Hazeley School Sixth Form, the highest quality post-16 education is offered in a structured and supportive environment. Students, teachers and parents work in a true partnership. It is this very partnership that is behind the success of our Sixth Form.

We are very fortunate to have some of the best facilities in Milton Keynes. Our Sixth Form, part of a £30+ million new build, opened in September 2009. Now a thriving community which is set to rise to over 300 students, enjoy exceptional facilities and outstanding teaching, support, advice and guidance across a really broad range of subjects.

We believe that The Hazeley School offers one of the most learner-centred and future-proofed education programmes available in the City. This is most evident in our Sixth Form where students can embark upon an incredibly broad choice of Advanced Level courses. We also offer two unique programmes we call the Hazeley Baccalaureates:

The Hazeley Higher Baccalaureate is studied for one year – a level 2 vocational programme in a range of subjects

The Hazeley Advanced Baccalaureate is studied for two years. The Advanced Bac, which can also follow on from the Higher, is a level 3 vocational programme; again available in a range of subjects. Alongside our A level offer, these two programmes provide students with exceptional preparation for the next phase in their learning journey at 18 or 19; University, apprenticeship or work with training.

Our 'gold-standard' curriculum offer is the International Baccalaureate Diploma (IB). This internationally recognised and extremely highly-regarded qualification allows our most able students to not have to limit their choices as to what to study. It is the programme which most cogently prepares young people to thrive at the top Universities in the UK and across the world. As the only school or college in Milton Keynes that offers the IB Diploma, it also attracts the highest calibre of sixth form teachers and leaders to our School.

To find out more, interested students or families should contact the Director of Sixth Form, Miss Nimmo in the first instance at jnimmo@hazeley.milton-keynes.sch.uk

Returning to learning

School days - 'the happiest days of your life?' Sadly, not for everyone.

But if you slipped through the education net first time round there's another chance for you to gain skills and qualifications that can help open up new options for work and further study or just make everyday things - such as helping your child with their homework - easier.

Improving your reading, writing and number skills can give you confidence you never knew you had.
There's a wide range of courses you can take to help boost your skills. Some of these can lead to a qualification.
You'll be able to learn in your local area, and in a way that suits your lifestyle: part time, full time, during the day or in the evening. And you'll be with other like-minded adults. It's not at all like being at school.

If you are not sure whether you can commit to a full course it's worth checking if your local learning provider runs 'taster' courses.

These are short courses which let you practise your reading, writing and number skills, and give you an idea what a longer course would be like.
BBC RaW (Reading and Writing) can help you boost your skills through online activities such as games, quizzes and tests. You can also find out about your nearest RaW centre - this could be your local library or learning centre. You can get help with RaW online, take part in activities and share your experiences with others.
Some employers are keen for their staff to develop new skills. If you are in work it is possible that you may be eligible for free training relevant to your job - for example through an apprenticeship, the Train to Gain scheme or the learndirect Learning through Work Scheme.
If you're looking to get back into work, you may be able to take part in the New Deal or other programmes for unemployed people.
If you want an informal and confidential chat about improving your skills, call the government funded Get On helpline on: 0800 66 0800 Lines are open from 8.00 am to 10.00 pm, seven days a week.

Many courses in literacy and numeracy are free, and you may not have to pay for tuition if you're going for your first qualification equivalent to GCSEs or A levels.
There's a wider range of free courses available if you're on income-related benefits, and there are opportunities for everyone to learn for free online at the BBC website: www.bbc.co.uk/raw

SIMON DARNELL

THE FLOOD
Take That

YOU want an 'event' single, do you? Right then, have this.

All five Take Thatters, together in the same recording studio.

Admittedly, it's not an event in the way that Paul Weller reforming The Jam or Alan Wilder returning to Depeche Mode would be, but what the heck, it's a start I suppose.

The odd thing is, the reappearance of Robbie seems to have put a spring back into the step of Gary, Mark and the other two, because this is a bit epic.

Not 'singing love songs to skyscrapers' epic like Rule The World, but 'tell you what, let's go and take on the world' epic.

The tune's a sort of cross between David Bowie's Absolute Beginners and some other bloke's No Regrets... what was his name... used to be in a boy-band... it'll come to me, I'm sure.

Anyway, there can't be many pop songs that paraphrase Han Solo from Star Wars, but this is definitely one of them – the line in question being 'Watch your mouth son, or you'll find yourself floating home'.

Think that's impressive? In the very next line they reference Dark Star. Oh yes, Take That are going for the Collectormania market and no mistake.

If they really wanted to go all out, they'd have sung 'defenders of the earth' rather than 'defenders of the faith', but I'm just being picky now aren't I?

See, at the end of the day Take That are very efficient when it comes to the slower songs and those are the ones that most people seem to like, but most of their best songs have turned up when they've shifted into third gear and this is a prime example.

It's a very, very good pop song, certainly a million times better than the recent Robbie-Gary duet, which had half-decent lyrics but naff all else.

In fact, tell you what, ignore the fact that it's an 'event' single and it still stands up on its own, that's how good it is.

101 80s ANTHEMS
Various Artists (album)

101 anthems? I beg to differ. Vienna, (I Just) Died In Your Arms and Drive definitely are, but Five Star's System Addict? Pushing the boundaries of reality just a tad, I fear.

The track listing is so haphazard it looks like it was compiled by someone who wasn't actually around in the 80s.

Really, if they'd called this 101 Randomly Picked Singles From The 80s instead at least then you'd know what you were getting.

JOHNNY SILVO

Cock Hotel
Stony Stratford
Friday, November 19

THE Living Legend that is Johnny Silvo is back for his annual visit.

Arguably the most talented all-round entertainer on the folk scene today it is hard to imagine anyone with a more tremendous voice, which is superb in volume, clarity and tone and versatility.

In addition he is an exceptionally fine guitarist and, for good measure, he intersperses his music with light-hearted humour and chat.

Johnny's wide musical interests and experience are reflected in his massive and varied repertoire. Ranging from Jazz and blues through folk to country and soul.

You can rest assured that if you want a really happy evening, if you want to be captivated by a virtuoso display of all round entertainment, then be there.

Tickets £7. Starts 8.15pm.

MADCAP THEATRE

WHOSE TURN IS IT ANYWAY?

Creed Street, Wolverton
Saturday, November 20.

A SHOW made up of very silly improvisation games where the comics playing don't know what the situations or characters will be because the audience provide them.

Bring along your ideas or mysterious props if you want to help lay the tracks on this comedy railway, assuming there'll be no leaves on the line. The team of improvisers have quite literally no shame and are willing to sell themselves for your comedic delight.

The line-up for the night is David Lovesy, Mark Niel, Brian Two, Matt Bayfield and Erika Benning, compered by Steve Clark and music from Mark Niel.

Be prepared for anything from World's Worst step to Singing the Blues, the stage is set for night of laughter and naughtiness.

Please note that this event is unsuitable for under 16s due to language and subject matter.

Doors open at 7.30pm for an 8pm start. Tickets are £7.50 on the door but just £6 in advance.

Further details available from David on 01908 605502 or email david@whoseturn.org.uk or visit www.whoseturn.org.uk

Partners good for affordable homes

MILTON Keynes Partnership (MKP) has selected Guinness Trust to be its investment partner to build affordable housing across the city over the next three years.

Around 200 new homes will be built of which some will be managed by Guinness Trust's managing agent, Guinness South, and the rest owned and managed by Catalyst Housing Group.

These homes will be built on small infill sites within the existing grid squares where there is currently a shortfall in affordable housing provision.

Tim Roxburgh, director of MKP said: "These small sites will be identified from our land ownership across the city and we will be working with Guinness Trust and the council to ensure they are in locations where there is a real need for affordable housing.

"We hope that in addition to providing affordable housing, the creation of these homes will also help to stimulate the general housing market in the city."

Margaret Dodwell, managing director of Guinness South, said, "We are delighted to have been selected for this innovative approach to delivering good quality affordable housing for local people.

"Our partnership with Milton Keynes Partnership represents excellent value for the taxpayer, not only through the delivery of well-designed, sustainable homes that will add value and opportunity to the existing community.

"As we work with the council to identify each appropriate site, we will be consulting with all of the residents in that local area to ensure they are aware of the plans and have their chance to input at an early stage."

Graham Hyslop and Tim Roxburgh of Milton Keynes Partnership with Margaret Dodwell of Guinness Trust

Cllr Chris Williams, responsible for housing, said: "Despite the downturn in the housing market, MK continues to strive to provide homes that are affordable and of the highest possible standards.

"We welcome this new agreement to provide 200 more affordable homes and we look forward to many more such schemes."

The first phase of these developments is expected to start in spring next year.

Local solicitor firm goes national

LEIGHTON Buzzard will be one of 55 locations for the expansion of the UK's first national legal brand which aims to become a household name.

QualitySolicitors has selected leading law firm Giffen Couch and Archer, on Pitstone Green Business Park, Westfield Road, Leighton Buzzard, to be one of their 'next generation legal brand' firms.

It is planned for a QualitySolicitors law firm to be launched in every major UK town and city by Autumn 2011, and aims to provide a recognisable household name for legal services. The changes, dubbed 'Tesco Law', will allow banks and retail brands to provide legal services for the first time from October 2011.

QualitySolicitors chief executive, Craig Holt, said: "The legal market is going to totally transform over the next couple of years. We will ensure going to a QualitySolicitors branch for legal matters will be as familiar and easy as calling into a well known bank or opticians.

"With a range of innovations in the coming months, we will change people's entire experience of accessing legal services, making it a much easier and more enjoyable process.

"By providing a recognisable and trusted brand name, we will end the need for the time-consuming and often stressful, task of having to choose between lots of different local firms."

Managing partner of what is now QualitySolicitors Giffen Couch & Archer, Anthony Taylor, said: "We are delighted our firm has been chosen and even more so because it was our client feedback that led to us being chosen."

Wilson Peacock signs up for the UK's largest property sale

Wilson Peacock has pledged to help local homeowners sell their property before the end of the year by signing up to take part in a nationwide property event on Saturday 4th December and Sunday 5th December.

All Wilson Peacock offices will take part in the two-day event, with hundreds of properties expected to take part across the region.

The event has been designed to boost the local housing market by helping more people access and move up the property ladder. The timing of the event is crucial as many homeowners would like to sell by the end of the year.

Launching the event, Rob Hawkins Manager, Wilson Peacock Central Milton Keynes Branch said;

"The aim of the property sale is to help get the property market moving. Demand is still strong and this event will help first time buyers, cash investors and families find committed sellers who are priced to sell.

"Realistic asking prices are key in this market - properties that are realistically priced are being snapped up by buyers across the region and demand is still extremely strong."

"The sale event provides the perfect opportunity for homeowners to review the asking price of their property against the data we hold for sales in that area to ensure they attract the best offers and secure the right price for their home."

Local homeowners and landlords can ensure their property is featured in this event by contacting their local Wilson Peacock office.

Buyers keen to be kept informed of any reduced properties should contact their local Wilson Peacock office to register their details or visit: www.wilsonpeacock.co.uk

MK Dons assistant manager JOHN GORMAN writes exclusively for MK NEWS every week

IT was a nice feeling to get back on the bus on Saturday evening with three points.

We always felt there was a result coming, especially given the performances, and hopefully away wins will now be like buses - they'll keep on coming now we've had the one we've been waiting for!

We can't get carried away with one result because the next game, Sheffield Wednesday, is a hard one.

But it puts to bed an unwanted winless run and we can look forward to our next away game.

The strong and solid performance in the first FA Cup match with Stevenage had a lot to do with the victory at Brentford - it was a very similar stadium, similar pitch.

One of the most pleasing aspects was every player had a good game, including the three subs, they all contributed.

I thought it was a seven out of ten performance from everybody, maybe an eight or nine for one or two individuals.

Everyone played well, but I think I have to give a special mention to Mark Carrington he's had to wait patiently for his turn.

With Didi Hamann stepping up to first team coach he won't play as much unless he's needed, and he wants the youngsters like Mark to be given a chance.

It was also a big boost to have Michael McIndoe join us from Coventry City in time for the game. When a new player comes in they seem to provide a big lift for everybody.

There was one player who was really disappointed not to get on the pitch, and it shows how much everyone wants to play - Jemal Johnson.

But Jabo came on and did well, Daniel Powell came on and his good run saw the Brentford defender get sent off, and Lewis Guy also stepped up to the plate.

It's important that the substitutes do fit right in to the game because they're just as important as the lads that are starting.

You want players who are unhappy not to be playing, but happy to be part of the set up and part of the team.

WHAT A GUY: Lewis Guy fires MK Dons in front

Shoot-out ends cup hopes

play with 10 men from the eighth minute when David Bridges escaped with a caution despite his swinging arm catching Dean Lewington in the face and wiping him to the floor.

Stevenage's no-nonsense defending had the away support gasping as a Peter Leven shot from outside the box was closed down and bounced just wide of the post.

At the other end they gave the Dons plenty to be concerned about as Scott Laird's free-kick rattled the upright, and Michael Bostwick drove wide before Stacy Long's low corner failed to be cleared and Jon Ashton was able to hit an effort against the corner of the frame.

Chris Beardsley could - and should - have punished the Dons as he picked off a loose ball, went one-on-one with David Martin, yet lost his composure and his strike rustled the side netting.

Dons found their first half opportunities limited against the organised opposition and with a bank of eight to beat they opted for shots from distance - Johnson watched a swerving effort dip over the bar.

As first-half stoppage time was announced Leven also had a free-kick skim over Chris Day's goal.

However four minutes in to the restart, the Dons, patient in their build up play, were able to break down the Stevenage defence.

Guy was involved heavily in the making of the goal before Leven drew in the Stevenage players, allowing Guy to run unnoticed through the defence and expertly finish past Day.

The game then became stretched as Stevenage searched for an equaliser and Dons tried to make their lead more comfortable. Sam Baldock went close at one end, while at the other Ben May had a rash shot fall closer to the corner flag than the target.

Luke Chadwick and Daniel Powell were brought on by Robinson in response to Stevenage's double introduction of Joel Odubade and Charlie Griffin.

Chadwick's first touch was a well controlled, but weak drive, which was then picked up by Gary MacKenzie but his shot was accidentally blocked by the body of Powell.

Stevenage's John Mousino missed an open goal, but Dons were left ruing misses from Kouo-Doumbe and Leven.

A late twist came as Martin fumbled Odubade,s cross allowing Charles to level the score.

And with extra-time unable to separate the sides the game was decided on penalties.

Gritty performance brings a change in luck

BRENTFORD 0

MK DONS 2

Kouo-Doumbe 57, Balanta 60

THIRTEEN can be counted as an unlucky number for most, but not for MK Dons.

On November 13, they recorded their first away win in 13 weeks with a 2-0 victory at Brentford.

The much talked about travel sickness came to a deserved end as MK Dons turned in an away day performance with grit, fight, desire and flair, but most importantly, goals.

"That performance wasn't too dissimilar to a lot of the other games," said Dons boss Karl Robinson, adding: "We had a bit of cutting edge today and we didn't make many individual errors." In spite of the victory at Brentford being only their second away from stadiummk, the three points moved Dons level on points with third-placed Bournemouth and sitting just outside the play-offs in seventh.

Brentford boss Andy Scott had collected the Manager of the Month gong just days earlier, but endured a frustrating day on the touchline as his side offered little and defender Pim Balkestein saw red late on for two cautions.

Key striker Charlie MacDonald twice saw efforts ruled out by the offside flag while Dons fans could have been forgiven for thinking it would be another pointless journey when Sam Baldock, Mathias Kouo-Doumbe and Angelo Balanta all went close but not close enough in the first half. Robinson said: "You do start thinking is it going to be our day on the road? Are we going to rue those missed chances? But credit to them, the way they came out in the second half they were a credit it to us all."

Dons only had to wait 12 minutes after the re-start, having weathered a small storm by the Bees, for Kouo-Doumbe to emphatically head home from Peter Leven's corner.

And just three minutes later, Balanta picked his spot in the back of the net from 20-yards with a terrific left-footed volley to confirm victory at Griffin Park.

Robinson added: "It's only a stepping stone and a foot in the right direction, but we have got a long way to go."

SHEFFIELD WEDNESDAY

Npower League One
Saturday, November 20
stadiumMK KO 3pm

SIXTEEN games in to the season Sheffield Wednesday are no longer considered new boys to League One.

Relegated from the Championship last season, Wednesday are continuing to find life hard on and off the pitch.

Potential takeover bids could rescue them from a possible threat of administration.

Recent cup fixtures have proved a welcome distraction for the Owls as they have been able to notch up three successive wins.

The two sides have only met twice before and on both occasions the points were shared.

The Dons have dropped just four points at home this season and will be looking to maintain their impressive record. Wednesday will be without midfielder Giles Coke who misses the game through suspension.

HUDDERSFIELD TOWN

Tuesday, November 23
Glapharm Stadium KO 7.45pm

ON the back of their first away win since the beginning of August, the Dons have a trip to the notoriously difficult Galpharm Stadium.

Huddersfield lost just one game at home in the league last season, but their home record has been dented slightly as they were beaten by Bristol Rovers and been held to Bournemouth and Tranmere on their own turf.

The Terriers, who lost in the play-off semi-finals in May, currently find themselves in fifth place in the League One table but are level on points with third placed Bournemouth and seventh placed Dons.

Former Stockport County midfielder Anthony Pilkington continues to be one of the Terriers' key players as he leads their top scoring charts with seven in the league already to his name.

Shoot-out extinguishes Flames

ICE HOCKEY

MK Lightning edged out Guildford Flames in a penalty shoot-out to cap off an impressive weekend of ice hockey.

A day after thrashing Sheffield Steeldogs an in-form Lightning side held their nerves to extinguish the Flames during penalties.

Lightning showed a deadly touch on Saturday as they tore apart a lowly Sheffield side.

After opening the scoring at 2.09 through Grant McPherson, a second followed from Monir Kalgoum eight minutes later and Andre Smulter extended Lightning's lead to 3-0 at the end of the first period.

Stunned by their hosts' start Sheffield eventually got on the score sheet on 24.38 when a powerplay allowed Lloyd Gibson the chance to strike.

But it was only a brief bright spell for the Steeldogs as Gary Clarke, Matt Towalski and Leigh Jamieson took Lightning's advantage to 6-1 with 20 minutes remaining.

Rather than ease off in the final period Lightning added their seventh goal of the evening through Adam Brittle.

A consolation in the form of a second goal came for Sheffield in the final minute but it did little to disguise a comfortable Lightning win.

On Sunday, Lightning travelled to Guildford Flames for the first time this season and stunned their opponents within a minute.

In fact, it took Lightning just 32 seconds to break the deadlock when Clarke's strike, from Kalgoum's pass, found the back of the net.

Flames found a response on 29.37 when Nathan Rempel hit the target to level the scores.

The game was then decided on penalties - with Adam Carr converting the winner.

GUILDFORD HEAT 86

Martin 18, Joseph 16, McLemore 15

MK LIONS 83

Gardner 24, Clark 18, Nelson 18

A LATE comeback was not enough to snatch victory as MK Lions slipped to defeat on the road at Guildford Heat.

Lions' inconsistency on the court cost them as they now sit in ninth place in the BBL table.

Both teams started brightly with Mike Martin and Jelani Gardner posting a quick-fire five points apiece for Heat and Lions respectively to ensure the scores were level in the opening few minutes, although it was the home side who always looked likely to pull away.

And that is exactly what they did as a 11-2 run broke open the game to stretch Heat 28-18 ahead, although Lions finished with four points to level the gap heading into the second period. Lions quickly clawed their way back when Kris Clark drained a three-pointer inside three minutes of the quarter to narrow the deficit to one point.

Unfortunately for Mike New his side's offence began to misfire and a further 16 points from Heat helped the home side carry a 46-35 lead in at half-time.

The words said during the interval had an impact as Lions netted eight unanswered points before James Porter and Martelle McLemore helped Heat re-establish their lead.

Lions, trailing 66-51 with ten minutes remaining, were forced in to another fightback and they delivered an incredible purple patch as they outscored Heat 23-8 approaching the last minute.

A triple by Anthony Haase remarkably tied the game at 81-81.

With momentum in their favour Lions failed to capitalise as Heat hit back and sealed victory with Julius Joseph sinking a three-pointer.

RUGBY

OLNEY 31 HIGH WYCOMBE 18

A COMFORTABLE victory over High Wycombe helped Olney return to level points with league leaders Witney.

The first points were posted when Jordan Letts released James Hannah to score and High Wycombe responded with a penalty, but Olney quickly extended their advantage with centre Hawken kicking two penalties.

The visitors fell further behind when Jack Sutton crossed the line, and Hawken added the extras to give Olney an 18-3 lead.

Olney took the score to 25-3 at the interval with Hawken converting his own try.

Hawken scored another penalty, before the guests began to fight back with two tries, one conversion and one penalty. However, Hawken had the final say as he kicked the last penalty to seal a 31-18 win.

BUCKINGHAM 26 BLETCHLEY 16

BLETCHLEY'S poor discipline proved costly as they lost to ninth placed Buckingham

The sides exchanged early penalties before Buckingham took a quick tap penalty and scored a converted try and open a 10-3 lead.

George Harman penalty pulled back three points for Bletchley but a further infringement saw the visitors reduced to 14 men for 10 minutes.

Buckingham added three points to the scoreline only to then see one of their players sent to the sin bin.

With Buckingham down to 14 men Bletchley were spurred on to score a try of their own, with Carl Miller driving over in the pack, and Harman's conversion levelled the scores at 13 a piece at half-time.

After the break ill discipline got the better of the two sides and Bletchley were again forced to play with 14 men.

Bletchley took the lead through another Harman kick, but Buckingham quickly squared the scores.

Buckingham then ran in two unconverted tries to claim a ten point victory.

Penalty heartbreak as Dons crash out of cup

MK DONS 1 STEVENAGE 1 (AET)
(Stevenage win 7-6 on penalties)

BY SIMONE CORGAN
simone.corgan@mk-news.co.uk

MK Dons bowed out of the FA Cup in a heartbreaking sudden death penalty shoot-out to Stevenage last night.

Mathias Kouo-Doumbe was the unfortunate Dons player to sky his spot-kick and hand Stevenage a First Round replay victory at stadiummk. The replay - the original tie ended goalless - was settled on penalties after Darius Charles' injury time cancelled out Lewis Guy's second-half strike and took the game in to extra-time, but neither side could add to the 1-1 score line.

Sam Baldock, Stephen Gleeson, Mark Carrington, Gary MacKenzie, Sean O'Hanlon and Dean Lewington all converted their penalties.

But misses from Stevenage's Scott Laird and Dons' Peter Leven sent it through to sudden death.

Dons looked set to wrap up the game in 90 minutes thanks to Lewis Guy's second-half strike, only for keeper David Martin fumbled the cross of Yemi Odubade which Charles was able to stab home and force 30 extra minutes of play.

And the shoot-out ended Dons' chances of a possible second round match with AFC Wimbledon - a club founded by fans in 2002 who objected to Wimbledon's then-proposed move to Milton Keynes.

Stevenage now await the winners of Thursday's clash between Ebbsfleet United and AFC Wimbledon.

The visitors were fortunate not to be forced to

Champ Vettel back to work

NEW Formula One World Champion Sebastian Vettel is already gearing up for the 2011 season.

Three days ago, Vettel's victory, coupled with Fernando Alonso and team mate Mark Webber's seventh and eighth finishes respectively, at the Abu Dhabi Grand Prix, saw him crowned the youngest ever F1 champion.

And on Friday Vettel, who was at Red Bull Racing's Tilbrook base yesterday, will return to the Yas Marina Circuit to begin testing for his title-defending year.

The 23-year-old barely had chance to reflect on his impressive season as he spoke to the world's media, including MK NEWS, at a press conference hours after touching down in England.

When the Red Bull team confirmed him as champion, Vettel could be heard sobbing on the team radio, something he finds a little embarrassing now he has listened back to the clip.

He said: "I sound like a little kid. So much goes through your head in that moment. It was a very, very special moment.

"I am very happy and proud - I'll enjoy every second. But the guys here are already working very hard on next year's car and very soon it's the same for me.

"It will be a tough challenge. We have the number one with the car - everyone wants that number one for the following season so we will be chasing it.

"We need to use our momentum now and continue where we stopped this season."

And that hard work starts on Friday in Abu Dhabi.

Vettel added: "It will be our first chance to test the new tyres for next season, so we will get a rough idea what to expect next year."

Meanwhile, Webber, who finished third in the Drivers' Standing has confirmed he will be with Red Bull next season and believes coming so close has made him even hungrier to succeed.

He told MK NEWS: "Yes I'll be here next year and I'm looking forward to getting going. In the end I'll come back stronger that's for sure."
